

Hey there. I know this'll sound a lil' whacko, but. ☆ I need to keep a record of this. It all seems like a feverdream. D

Like, my pal calls up with an urban legend. Abandoned building we're going to dig in. and. supposedly it's something real special? Got sealed off for some silly reason but we're gonna break in to take a look! since its abandoned & we got peevans from the lord owner

I'm curious where he heard about it but he just says he has a source & he believes its going to be REAL GOOD. Hope it goes better than that abandoned hospital. We should at least get a fun moment out of this.

I'm sure though. we'll be alright together.
We always are.

I got separated from him - but. Its okay, we'll meet back up. This place doesn't fit together right. How the wire, him? song. How the spaces seem the same when you think about it. Is it breathing? Watching me? No cameras. But. Despite the seeded down how. we save rooms pushie and others like some bands circle at dark's looking Interns VIT for the I66.

I. Need to find him and leave. I found an oddly friendly radio in here. same kind at first or soon as i don't really give a damn but they've helped me get some bearings. Also told me some. Disturbing things. About keeping clean. Counting the number of teeth on people after reuniting. About existence but. I'm not alone again - maybe that's enough for you. I found him. No. Is that him? I found him. I found him.

Na they what na na na na what is it. teeth teeth teeth when is he when is he he's gone that is not him him na
